I. PROGRAM OVERVIEW

QUICK FACTS

PROGRAM PURPOSE

The LASA Grant Program provides grants that directly benefit and strengthen the local food system in Rhode Island. The program was established by the Local Agriculture and Seafood Act (LASA) of 2012 via an innovative public-private partnership between the state and three private foundations — the van Beuren Charitable Foundation, the Henry P. Kendall Foundation, and the Rhode Island Foundation. Currently, the program is made possible by funding from the State of Rhode Island. The goal of the LASA grant program is to support the growth, development, and marketing of local food and seafood in Rhode Island.

2022 FUNDING PRIORITIES

The LASA Advisory Committee sets priorities each grant year and makes recommendations to the Director of the RIDEM. Applicants are required to fulfil at least one (not all) of the funding priorities listed below.

- Support the entry, growth, and/or sustainability of small or beginning agriculture producers (including aquaculture producers) and fishers.
- Support agriculture producers (including aquaculture producers) and fishers that are Black, Indigenous and People of Color (BIPOC).
- Support the development of new marketing, promotion, sales, and/or distribution channels.
- Support the development of new products, including value added processing capacity.
- Foster new cooperatives, partnerships, and/or collaborations among Rhode Island agriculture producers (including aquaculture producers) and fishers and supporting organizations.
- Fosters and builds capacity for markets connecting local farms and fishers with Rhode Island's food insecure communities.
- Protect the future availability of agricultural land for producers, including farm transition planning and implementation.
- Assistance with on farm Food Safety improvements assistance, including the developing of FSMA and HACCP Standards

ELIGIBILITY

For-profit farmers, fishermen/women, and producer groups are eligible to apply as are non-profit organizations. Applicants must be based in the State of Rhode Island. The Advisory Committee will value geographic diversity in the applicant pool when making award determinations. Only small and/or beginning farmers, or producer groups of small or beginning farmers, are eligible to apply for capital grants. (Aquaculture operators are considered farmers in this regard).

Ineligible activities include non-project related travel, scholarships, general operating funds, on-going capital campaigns, political or policy advocacy campaigns, conference/workshop attendance fees, etc.

All costs associated with developing or submitting a proposal in response to this request, or with
