To: Certified Organic Farms and Handlers in Rhode Island

Re: USDA ORGANIC CERTIFICATION 2021-2022 COST-SHARE PROGRAMS

The Rhode Island Department of Environmental Management, Division of Agriculture, is participating in USDA's Organic Certification Cost-Share programs and you may be eligible for reimbursement. Four categories of certification are eligible for reimbursement including the producer categories of crops, wild crops and livestock, and the handler category. Applicants must be certified operations located within the State of Rhode Island.

Operations must possess USDA organic certification to be eligible to receive reimbursements. To be eligible, between October 1, 2021, and September 30, 2022, the organic operation must have paid eligible fees/expenses related to its initial or renewal organic certification from a USDA-accredited certifying agent, and the operation must have a valid organic certification under the National Organic Program at the time of application for cost-share reimbursement.

Payments are limited to 50% (fifty percent) of an individual producer's or handler's allowable certification costs, up to a maximum of $500 (five hundred dollars) per certificate or category (scope) of certification, per year. See the last page of this application packet for examples of costs that are eligible for reimbursement, which include those listed in the OCCSP Fact Sheet: https://www.fsa.usda.gov/programs-and-services/occsp/

In the event that demand exceeds the amount of funds allocated by USDA to Rhode Island, applications will be processed on a first-come, first-served basis.

APPLICATIONS MUST BE RECEIVED BY THE RHODE ISLAND DEM DIVISION OF AGRICULTURE NO LATER THAN NOVEMBER 1, 2022. These forms are available at: http://www.dem.ri.gov/programs/agriculture/documents/orgcossh.pdf

Certified organic operations in Rhode Island optionally may apply for USDA organic certification cost share reimbursement instead through the USDA Farm Service Agency (FSA) Kent County office. Required FSA forms and contact information are online at: https://www.fsa.usda.gov/programs-and-services/occsp/
