On Friday, 1/27/2012, ARCADIS personnel performed a routine inspection of the soil vapor extraction system at this Site and found that the blower in the front shed of the middle school was not operating due to water build up in the knockout tank. The tank was drained and the system was restarted.

Donna